PEPC Happenings…

Mission Breakfast on Sept. 25: Everyone is invited! Breakfast will be served at 8:30am in the Main Lobby and be hosted by the PEPC Men's Group. Proceeding breakfast, everyone will have two 30-minute breakout sessions with missionaries beginning at 9:15am. One breakout room will feature Randy Davis, another will feature Jason Peters, and a third will include Ken Allen and Eric Ones. Attendees can choose two of the three breakouts. If you have questions email, missions@pepc.org.

Mission Sunday on Sept. 26: Missionaries available in the Main Lobby before and after worship to talk about what is going in in their mission field.

Kids Ministry

Kids Ministry is moving to full programming for the 8:30am and 10:30am services! Accepting babies to 5th grade. We are beyond excited to offer this again. We are in search of some additional leaders to come and have fun with us. Are you interested but a little nervous since you haven't done it before? Come shadow a group and learn exactly what it is we get to do. Email kids@pepc.org to learn more.

Mens Ministry - ElDoCo Retreat

October 8-10 / Quaker Ridge Camp

Join us as we partner with other churches from Elbert and Douglas counties. This will be a great weekend of worship, fellowship, teaching, and fun. We're looking forward to hearing from our speaker, Fred Lynch. Cost is $125 and includes food and lodging. Register at www.pepc.org/ministries/mens-ministry/. For any questions, contact men@pepc.org.

Employment Opportunities

PEPC is seeking a full-time Production Director and a full-time Family Ministry Director. If you would like to find out more or apply go to https://pepc.org/employment/.

Worship Center Upgrade Transition

As I am sure many of you know, we are getting closer and closer to beginning the upgrade on the Worship Center. This is great news! During that time we will move to the Student Center for worship with three services to at 8:00am, 9:30am and 11:00am with Kids Programming being offered at 9:30am and 11:00am services. We appreciate your flexibility with this and can't wait to be back in the Worship Center when the upgrade is complete. We will be notifying everyone soon of the move date to the Student Center.
